UK COVID-19: INSIDE AIM - TEMPORARY MEASURES FOR PUBLICATION OF HALF-YEARLY REPORTS

Jun 09, 2020

SUMMARY

To coincide with the FCA's recent statement on temporary relief for listed companies on publishing half-yearly financial reports, the London Stock Exchange has published similar measures for AIM companies.

Temporary relief for half yearly financial reports

From today, AIM companies are allowed an additional one month to publish their half-yearly financial report (from three to four months).

To benefit from this extension, an AIM company must:

- notify the market (via an RIS) of its intention to take advantage of this relaxation prior to the AIM company's reporting deadline under AIM Rule 18; and
- the nominated adviser must separately inform AIM Regulation.
