BIOGRAPHY

Alexa splits her time between the firm's Business and Commercial Disputes Practice Group and pro bono work for Legal Aid Chicago. At BCLP, Alexa assists on general litigation matters. At Legal Aid Chicago, Alexa works in the Public Benefits Practice Group to secure and maintain federal and state public benefits for underserved residents in the Chicagoland area.

During law school, Alexa participated in the Philip C. Jessup International Law Moot Court Competition and served as a staff editor for the Washington University Global Studies Law Review. She also participated in her school's Civil Rights and Mediation Clinic.

Prior to joining the firm, Alexa held summer and school-year internships at The MICA Project, the Transportation Security Administration, and Legal Services of Eastern Missouri.
