BIOGRAPHY

Ashlynn is an associate in the firm's Energy, Environment and Infrastructure group. Her practice focuses on complex commercial agreements related to renewable energy, oil and gas and advising clients on regulatory and enforcement actions across a variety of environmental statutes.

Ashlynn first joined the firm in 2021 as a Summer Associate in the firm's St. Louis office and returned as a Summer Associate in the Denver office. During her second summer, Ashlynn won the Anti-Defamation League's annual Summer Associate Research Program competition.

Ashlynn received her J.D. and a Certificate in Public Interest Law from Washington University School of Law. During law school, she served as a student attorney in the WashU Interdisciplinary Environmental Clinic, where she assisted local non-profit organizations in advocating for realistic improvements to Missouri environmental law. She also served as an Editor of Jurisprudence

Review, held leadership positions in OUTlaw and the Student Bar Association, participated in an externship with Rocky Mountain Victim Law Center, and co-taught an intersectional class about law, gender, and justice to undergraduates. Ashlynn graduated with High Honors from University of Wisconsin-Madison with a Bachelor of Science in Environmental Science.
