BIOGRAPHY

Maite is an associate in the Tax Advice & Controversy department. She has experience in all main areas of corporate taxation dealing with advisory, transactional and contentious matters, covering the full tax life cycle.

Maite's broad practice includes assisting with the tax aspects of real estate, finance and cross-border M&A transactions as well as providing structuring advice. She is available to provide bespoke tax training on those areas.

In relation to her contentious work, Maite has experience resolving matters with the revenue through negotiation or litigation (First-tier and Upper Tribunals). She also assists her clients with complex VAT issues in a variety of sectors, including in the real estate and telecoms sectors.

Maite was a speaker in the 2024 St Louis International Tax Group Seminar, and is a contributor of Tax articles on her areas of focus.

Prior to joining BCLP, Maite had a background in academia. She has delivered training sessions and research seminars at doctoral level which have been published.
