BCLP SHORTLISTED AS ENERGY/ INFRASTRUCTURE TEAM OF THE YEAR AT 2024 LEGAL BUSINESS AWARDS

Aug 08, 2024

BCLP has been shortlisted as Energy / Infrastructure Team of the Year at the 2024 Legal Business Awards.

The 27th annual Legal Business Awards celebrates the very best in the legal profession—recognizing teams that have attracted the most impressive instructions of the year in this critical and challenging sector group.

As energy plays a hugely important role in national and international economies, BCLP's energy transition team, led by Partners Peter O. Hansen and David Blondel, supports clients in navigating the myriad of existing and new government regulations, emerging energy technologies, identifying opportunities from public policy changes related to climate change and the promotion of low carbon sources of energy.

BCLP's multi-disciplinary infrastructure team advises sponsors, lenders, developers and procuring authorities on all aspects of infrastructure development and investment across all asset classes both in regulated and unregulated markets. "The firm's UK energy team, comprising partners Mark Richards, Adam Dann, Kevin Atkins and Matthew Daffurn, guide clients through every step of their project pipeline— from consenting and competition issues, through to financing, structuring and eventual delivery and exit."
