BCLP PARTNER SHY JACKSON TO SPEAK AT EIC CONFERENCE IN DENMARK

Sep 25, 2024

BCLP Construction Disputes partner, Shy Jackson, will be a featured speaker at the autumn edition of the European International Contractors (EIC) Conference. The event will be held from 3 to 4 October 2024 at The House of Industry in Copenhagen

Shy's session on 4 October will focus on "Mainstreaming Collaborative Delivery Models" and in particular, the "Lessons Learned from Using the NEC Model." Shy will explore the potential of collaborative delivery models in establishing balanced contracts with an adequate risk profile, thereby improving project outcomes and future business prospects.

A frequent speaker and author on NEC contracts, Shy is widely regarded as a leading specialist in the field and is highlighted in Chambers & Partners for "know[ing] NEC contracts back to front." In 2020, Shy was appointed as a member of the NEC Contract Board in recognition of his experience in advising on the NEC contract and his involvement in projects using NEC.

The EIC, which is hosting the conference, is comprised of construction industry federations from 15 European countries that are directly or indirectly affiliated to the European Construction Industry Federation (FIEC). It represents the interests of internationally active European contractors towards the EU, international organisations, financing institutions and society at large.
