BCLP NAMED RECIPIENT OF THE 2024 AMERICAN LEGAL TECHNOLOGY AWARD

Oct 11, 2024

International law firm BCLP has been the named recipient of the 2024 American Legal Technology Award in the Law Firm category, highlighting its leadership in utilizing innovation to exceed client expectations.

The firm was recognized for addressing a key challenge faced by client International Workplace Group's (IWG) legal department, which needed a more efficient way to support its sales force in generating contracts swiftly. Under the direction of Tory Goldson, BCLP's innovation team partnered with IWG to develop a self-service platform, empowering the sales team to quickly generate contracts within certain company parameters. This solution streamlined processes, promoting a more accessible and efficient approach to commercial contracting.

The mission of the American Legal Technology Awards is to highlight excellence in innovation and technology within the legal industry, expand the collective understanding of what is possible, encourage a virtuous cycle of improvement, and contribute to the creation of a more just society. The firm's achievement is a testament to its dedication to these principles, reinforcing its role as a leader in legal innovation.
