BIOGRAPHY

Constance Hoffman serves as BCLP's Global Director of Procurement. Ms. Hoffman brings to the firm more than 25 years of experience cultivating and leading successful information technology teams and championing the use of information technology to improve client relationships. Prior to assuming the CIO position, Ms. Hoffman led the firm's award-winning Client Technology Group, which develops web-based, client-facing software applications.

Before joining the firm in 2002, Ms. Hoffman was the owner and managing director of a company she co-founded to provide strategic consulting and capital to early stage information technology ventures. From 1992 through 2000, she was Vice President of New Media for Pulitzer, Inc., President of Pulitzer Technologies, Inc., and a member of Pulitzer's senior leadership team. Ms. Hoffman managed the electronic media businesses associated with each of Pulitzer's 13 newspapers.
